This gaing of tramps has caused terror
o the residents of Alexandria and viinity. At least half a dozen persons ave been held up on the roads leading o this city within the past few days.
Yesterday afternoon a farmer named leais was attacked by these fellows and arread to oclover up his produce which is was bringing to Alexandria to dispose of Errand boys from this city, while on heir way to the subartis, have been reeved of the goods which they had to editer, and people residing in the loanty frequented by the tramps have ecome greatly alarmed.
A young white man applied to Chief of

Mr. William Chisholm, traveling or of the Baltimore and Ohio Railresides. He could not get work at business which he had followed for toau, resides. He could not get work at the basiness which he had followed for neveral years, stenography and type writing, and was induced to go to Brittain's Bay, on the lower Potomac, to dredge for oysters. He was promised $11 a month and hourd. He sailed from Baldimore October 5 on the sloop Barbara, Capt. J. W. Wesles. When he arrived at the dredging grounds he was informed that he would have topay $2.59 for his transpertation, and that he would only receive $5 per month. He was subjected to all kinds of cruefly, and on several occasions was knocked senseless with a club by the captain.

He was forced to work as long as twenty-four hours without receiving anything to ext. and then was furnished scant meals. Meintosh states that he wrote several letters to his parents for money with which to return home, but his employer, he is confident, never mailed them, as he received a nessage in few days ago from home, in which his parents inquired why he had not written.

After this he determined to make his escape, and succeeded in disposing of a pair of boots and a Bible, which was a gift from his mother, for $1.75. With this he was enabled to reach this city, where he telepraphed to his parents. The young man bears evidence of baying been roughly treated.

Mrs. Bennett, an old white lady, fell on King street yesterday afternoon, receiving a gash in her head. She was removed to her home, corner of Duke and Fayette streets.

The court of appeals, at Richmond, has affirmed a decree of the circuit court of this city in the case of McVeighs, administrator, vs. thanberlian. The latter court decided that James L. Chamberlain was entitled to a two-thirds interest in certain wharf property in this city.

Col. F. L. Smith has been re-elected chairman, and Mr. Hubert Snowden clerk of the city school board. The schools will be closed for the Christmas holidays from December 23 to January 4.

Mr. Louis P. Woodward, who was recently appointed watchman and fireman at the custom house building has entered on the discharge of his duties.

Mr. A. W. Armstrong is confined to his home with rheumantism.

Miss Lallie Wilburn has returned from a visit to relatives and triends in Connecticut and Massachusetts.

Messra, C. B. Marshall, K. Kemper, J. E. Alexander, J. H. Fisher, T. W. Robinson, J. B. Padgett, W. F. H. Fink, and Edgar Brockett have returned from Richman, where they attended the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Masons.
